(ACT NO. 11 OF 1964)

As amended by Raj. 15 of 1975.

[Received the assent of the President on the 6th day of April, 1964].

An Act to provide for the acquisition of estates of landowners and ¹[for other measures of agrarian reform, removal of intermediaries, allotment of land to landless persons, development of agriculture] and, in consequence thereof, to amend certain other Acts.

BE it enacted by the Rajasthan State Legislature in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as, follows:-

CHAPTER I

Preliminary

1. Short title, extent and commencement. –

- (1) This Act may be called the Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Landowners' Estates Act, 1963.
- (2) It extends to the whole of the State of Rajasthan.
- (3) It shall come into force at once.

COMMENTARY

1. Application of the Act.-[1] The Act applies to Ex-rulers of covenanting States in Rajasthan exclusively and authorises resumption of land in respect of those lands in respect of which khatedari rights have not been acquired by such Ex-rulers landowners. GirirajSingh v. State of Raj., 1977 RRD 210.

[2] Land owned by Ex-Rulers is covered by this Act and not under the Rajasthan Tenancy Act, 1955. The Ex-Rulers become automatically khatedar tenants of the land held by them under the covenants. Thus their khatedar lands are subject to ceiling law.

[3] The khudkast land of the Ex-Ruler is not acquired under this Act. State of Raj.v.RaghunathSingh, 1976 RRD 166.

[4] The Land under Sardarsamand estate was under the personal cultivation of the petitioner at the commencement of this Act and in that land there were no tenants. The petitioner, therefore, became the khatedar tenant thereof as from the date of vesting, i.e. September 1, 1964 and was not bound to deliver the possession of the land to the Collector, immediately after the publication of the Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Land Owners Estates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 (Ordinance No. 6 of 1975) in the Official Gazette, and the Collector is not authorised to recover its possession from the petitioner under section 9-A of the Act, which was inserted into principal Act by Act No. 15 of 1975. The notice marked Annexure 18 given to the petitioner by the Collector, Jodhpur, on April 5, 1975, is therefore, liable to be quashed so far as it relates to agricultural land under his personal cultivation of which the petitioner has become a khatedar tenant as from the date of vesting, i.e. September 1, 1964 on account of the land having been in his personal cultivation at the date of commencement of the Act. Maharaja Shri GajSingh of Jodhpur v. State of Rajasthan & Ors., 1981 WLN (UC) 73.

2. Applicability of CPC-Section 144 CPC.-Section 20 of this Act provides a limited right of appeal to the Board of Revenue. An order under section 144 CPC is not specified in section 20 of this Act thus such order (under section 144 CPC) of the Collector is not appealable under this Act. Matters in respect of which appeals can be filed is enumerated under sections 3(2), 10(2), 11(2) and 15(2) of this Act and beyond that there is no right to appeal against. State of Raj.v. Dr. Kami Singh of Bikaner, 1983 RRD 414.

In view of the Rule 27 under this Act, which provides that in contested cases, trial of such suits shall be conducted by revenue court and under the provisions of the Raj. Tenancy Act, 1955, CPC is applicable under section 208 of the Raj. Tenancy Act, therefore, in view of Rule 27, section 144 CPC is applicable to the proceedings under this Act as well. State of Raj.v.Dr.Karni Singh of Bikaner, 1983 RRD 414.

3. Rajasthan Urban Improvement Act (1959), S.52(I)-The word "land" to be given broad meaning-Private property of Ex-RulerSatisfaction of two conditions (a) Land contains palace, fort,building, or building plot, and (b) it is specified in inventory tosave it from acquisition.-The word 'land' right from Manu's time,Mughal period and British rule, the terms and conditions of thecovenantsettled between the rulers of the erstwhile States and the Central Government, a broad meaning has been given to the word land' in the Act. Landis presumed to be agricultural lands unless the same has been put to 'non-agricultural use by the construction of forts, palaces or has specifically been set apart as building plots and the same has been recognised assuch by the Central Government. To bring the case within the exceptionit is not sufficient for the land holder to only prove that the land in disputecontains a fort, palace, buildings or building plots. He is further requiredto prove that the same had been specified as such in the inventory. Unlessboth the above noted conditions are fulfilled, the land owner cannot savethe land from its acquisition under the Act. The State of Rajasthan v.Bhawani Singh former His Highness Jaipur and Ors. 1980 WLN 295.

4. Extra-ordinary remedy by writs under Art. 226.-There is no bar to the issue of the writs claimed by the petitioners, merely becausethey could file a suit for declaration of their Khatedari rights in the landsunder dispute before invoking the extraordinary jurisdiction of this courtby way of these writ petitions. The Collector Jodhpur, had no jurisdictionto issue notices to the petitioners under section 9-A of the Act calling upon them to deliver possession of the lands in dispute to him. If the petitioners had not resorted to this alternative remedy they would have been ousted from the lands in their possession before they could get interim relief because even under sub-section (2) of section 10 CPC the Court is not empowered to grant relief in the suit whether interim or otherwise except after giving to the Government or to the Collector, a reasonable opportunity of showing cause in respect of the relief prayed for in the suit. Consequently, I am of the view that the alternative remedy suggested by the Additional Government Advocate was inadequate and this court is not deprived of its discretion to issue the writs in the particular circumstances of these cases. Mohan Singh v. State of Raj. And Narendra Singh v. State of Raj. & Anr. 1981WLN (UC) 62.

5. Validity of Amending Act No. 15 of 1975.-This Amending Act No. 15 of 1975 has been declared valid and become effective with effect from 13-4-1964. Thus the Lands as estate belonging to the ex-rulers and land owners vest in the State of Rajasthan. The State Government slept over the Act and inaction on the part of the State Government is highly objectionable thus deplored. State of Raj. v. Smt. Gayatri Devi, 1980 RRD 307.

6. Scheme of the Act. - Section 2(b) defines "estate" as land or the right, title or interest in land held by a landowner. "Land" itself has been defined by the Amendment Act of 1975 in the substituted section 2(f) to include any land held or let for agriculture or for purposes ancillary thereto. The net effect is that an estate for purposes of the Act will certainly include agricultural land. Section 6 forms a separate Chapter by itself and deals with the khatedari rights of the landowners themselves and their tenants.

The Amendment Act of 1975 has substituted Chapter IV of the principal Act retrospectively. Section 7 says that as soon as may be after the commencement of the Act, the Government may for the purpose of carrying out agrarian reform by notification in the official gazette appoint a date for the acquisition of landowner's estates in the State and for their vesting in the State Government. The notified date is 1.9.1964. If section 7 is read with section 6(2) the position emerges that with the vesting of an estate under section 7 there is a simultaneous conversion of land in an estate personally cultivated by the landowner to khatedari land. The Act does not envisage any separate order in respect of section 6(2); its operation is automatic with the vesting. It follows that chapter IV envisages the acquisition of ownership rights in land forming part of an estate in the personal cultivation of the ex-ruler but leaves the latter with khatedari rights in that land. It could not have been the intention of the legislature to disturb the possession of a khatedar and it is patently incorrect to claim that possession even of such land in an estate is required to be delivered under S.9-A. This section requires the landowner and every person claiming through him to deliver possession of the "estate acquired under section 7". In respect of land covered by section 6 only the ownership rights are acquired and khatedari is left untouched. State of Rajasthan v. KishanGopal, 1978 RRD 36.

COMMENTARY

1. Scope of-Agricultural land in personal cultivation of erstwhile ruler-Ceiling proceedings.-The Khudkasht or khatedariland of an Ex-ruler is amenable to ceiling proceedings whether they are included in the inventory or not. It is only that land which is a part of a Fort, Palace building or building plots and are specified ceiling area because they do not form part of the land as defined in s.2(f) of the Act. Once they form part of the land as defined in s.2(f) read with s.2(b) of the Act ceiling proceedings about them can very well be initiated by S.D.O.(South), Bikaner. SushilaKumari v. State of Rajasthan, 996 (1) WLC96=1995 (2) WLN 377=1996 (2) RLW 78.

2. Land-Connotationof.-[1] 'Land*' as defined is not restricted to agricultural land, but it also includes waste land and for pasture as well as sites of buildings and other structures occupied by the cultivators of land, agricultural labourers and village artisans, tanks, lakes, ponds, river and water channels held for purposes of irrigation as well as surface of hills, landing grounds or strips and shikargah are also included in the definition of land. State of Rajasthan v. Prajapati Garh Nirman Samiti Ltd., 1987 WLN UC 103 (DB). But reversed in AIR 1989 SC 869.

[2] Lands as open enclosures and in personal cultivation of landowner (Ex-ruler of Covenanting State) even if included in inventory of private properties, they form part of khatedari land of Ex-ruler. SushilaKumari v. State of Rajasthan, 1997 RRD 240 (HQ (DB)).

[3] Land does not include abadi land which is no longer agricultural land. State of Rajasthan v. Bhawanisingh, 1993 RRD 554 (SC).

3.Special Case regarding land in Khasra No.421 and 426.-

[1] So far as the land in dispute i.e. Khasra Nos. 421 and 426 is concerned the admission made by the State and which was also clear from various documents which have been considered by the High Court in their judgments in these petitions clearly show that these lands were within the boundaries of the Umaid Bhawan Palace which is the private property in accordance with the inventory prepared and approved by the Government of India and therefore which will not fall within the ambit of the definition of the 'land' as defined in s.2(f) and thus will not fall within the ambit of the 'estate' which could vest under the provisions of this section and in this view of the matter even without going into the question about whether land being agricultural or not the view taken by Justice M.L.Jain is the only view which could be sustained. Adhunik Griha Nirman Sahkari Samiti Ltd. v. State of Rajasthan, AIR 1989 SC 867 (874) =1989Supp. (I) SCC 656 (664).

[2] Disputed land whether agricultural land.- As regards the question as to whether this land is agricultural or not it will be relevant to note that the Settlement

Officer is alleged to have stated that the plan was carefully perused, checked and tallied with the corresponding old settlement record of Samvat 1979 together with the site plan of Umaid Bhawan Palace which indicates the private property of His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur Jodhpur duly verified on 12.11.1958 by then Dy. Secretary, G.A.D. and the Commissioner, Jodhpur Division, Jodhpur wherein the said land is included in the premises of Umaid Bhawan Palace. The Settlement Officer further added that the fact that this land had never been assessed to rent, that it never has been cultivated and that it is included within the Umaid Bhawan Palace is sufficient to show that it is 'abadi land' within the meaning and definition under s.158 of the 13 of Rajasthan Land Revenue Act, 1956, The view expressed by the Government that this land does not appear to be agricultural land is fully established and it was on the basis of these documents that the learned Judge Shri M.L.Jain came to the conclusion that:

'The documents clearly demonstrate that the land in dispute is not an agricultural land rather it forms part of the abadi land. In the revenue records, Khasra Nos are allotted not only to agricultural plot but they are also allotted to banjar land and to abadi land as well. The copies of the jamabandi and girdwari filed by the State shows that the land is padat and does not carry and land revenue. It is, therefore, clear that the land in question being an abadi land is not covered by the provisions of the Act.'

It is clear that the contention raised by the learned Counsel for the respondent that this land is an agricultural land also cannot be accepted and in view of our conclusions reached above it is clear that the view taken by learned Judge Shri M.L.Jain is the only view which could be taken. Consequently the appeals filed by the appellants including Prqjapati Griha Nirman Sahkari Samiti Ltd. Jodhpur v. State of Rajasthan & Ors. are allowed. The Judgment passed by the Division Bench of High Court of Rajasthan in the appeals is set aside and it is held that no action under the provisions of Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Land Owners Estate Act, 1963 could be taken against the appellants and all notices or actions taken are hereby quashed. Adhunik Griha Nirman Sahkari Samiti Ltd. v. State of Rajasthan, AIR 1989 SC 867 (874)=1989 Supp.(I) SCC 656 (664).

4. Compensation Commissioner-The Collector has no jurisdiction to enquire into the personal property of an estate owner Ex-ruler. The Collector must have referred the matter to the compensation Commissioner who alone has the jurisdiction of enquiry. Section 10(2) authorises the. Compensation Commissioner and not the Collector. Raj Kumar v. AmbikaPratapSingh v. State of Raj., 1983 RRD 743; Col. MohanSingh v. State, 1981 (UC) 62,

5. 'Land owner-Who is.-[1] Land owner means the Ex-ruler of a covenanting State of Rajasthan holding as an estate under in accordance with the settlement of his personal and private properties made in pursuance of the covenant and finally approved by the Central Government of India. Such covenant was entered into and admitted by the respondents and not by the appellant. Appeal was rightly rejected. Parmeshwar Raj Shri Eklingji Maharaja v. Shri Bhagwat Singh, 1982 RRD 509.

[2] Under section 10 of this Act, respective claims in respect of land of Landowner (ex-ruler) and the state of Rajasthan are to be taken into consideration. Idol of Lord Eklingji thus cannot be considered Landowner under this Act. Parmeshwar Maharaja Eklingji v. Shri Bhagwat Singhji, 1982 RRD 509.

CHAPTER II

Assessment of Land-owners' Estates to Land Revenue

3. Liability of estates to pay Land Revenue.-

(1) Every estate shall be liable to the payment of land revenue to the Government as from the 1st day of April, 1963 and till the day immediately preceding its acquisition.

(2) The amount of land revenue payable in respect of any estate of a landowner shall be assessed by the Collector in a manner hereinafter provided in this Chapter.

(3) The amount of Land revenue payable under sub-section (1) shall be equal to one-fourth of the rental income from the estate as determined in accordance with the provision of section 4 and 5.

COMMENTARY

1. Liability to pay land revenue.- Under s.2(g), the landowner is who is a Ruler of a Covenanted State in the State of Rajasthan holding an estate under or in accordance with the settlement made in pursuance of the Covenant and approved by the Central Government for personal or private properties. Under this definition, the Ruler was to be treated as a landowner if there is Covenant in respect of personal or private properties approved by central Government 'Estate' is defined to be the land or right, title or interest in land held by the landowner. If the properties are not held by landowner, it will not be an estate within the definition of s.2 (b) of the Act. In the instant case the petitioners are not the landowners and as such the land held by them shall not be estate within the meaning of s.2 (b). Under s.3, every estate is made liable to pay land revenue to the Government of Rajasthan as from the 1st day of April, 1963 and till the day immediately preceding its acquisition. The 'estate' has a significant meaning under the Act. 'Estate' is defined in s.2(b). If there is no estate, there cannot be a levy of land revenue u/s.3 of the Act because it is only the estate, which is liable to payment of land revenue. State of Rajasthan v. Mahendrasingh, 1994 (2) WLC 543.

2. Scope.-Land revenue can only be levied w.e.f. 1.4.1963 and not for any previous period. 1969 RRD 292.

4. Determination of rental income from estates. –

(1) For the purpose of assessing land revenue payable for any year in respect of any estate of a landowner, the Collector shall first determine the rental income for that year from such estate in the manner herein after provided.

(2) Where the lands forming part of any estate are situated in more than one village, the rental income from such lands in each village shall be separately determined.

(3) The rental income from the lands forming part of the estate in a village shall.

(a) where the Village is a settled village, be the total of—

- (i) the rents assessed on lands forming part of the estate (other than Khudkasht lands which have not been assessed) as entered in the revenue records of the village, and
- (ii) the rents which would have been payable in respect of Khudkasht lands (which have not been so assessed) if they had been let out to tenants on the prevailing rent rates in the locality;

(b) where the village is not a settled village, be the amount determined in the manner specified in section 5.

5. Computation of rental income from estates situated in villages which are not settled. -(1) Where any lands forming part of any estate are situated in a village which is not settled, the Collector shall give notice, in the prescribed manner, requiring the landowner to furnish within such period, not being less than sixty days, as may be specified in the notice, a statement in the prescribed form showing—

- (a) the income from rents during each of the three agricultural years 1960-61, 1961-62 and 1962-63, and the annual average thereof,
- (b) the income from rents which would have been payable in respect of Khudkasht lands, if they were let out to tenants on the prevailing rent rates in the locality.

(2) Where a landowner has furnished a statement under sub-section (1), the annual average or rental income mentioned therein from the estate, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) be deemed to be the rental-income therefrom for the purpose of assessment of land revenue thereon.

(3) Where a landowner has failed to furnish a statement under sub-section (1) in respect of any estate, or where the Collector has reason to believe that in any such statement the landowner has concealed any rental income or deliberately furnished inaccurate particulars thereof, the Collector shall determine the rental income from the estate after holding such enquiry and in accordance with such principles as may be prescribed.

(4) The statement furnished by a landowner under sub-section (1) may be used against him for the purpose of determining the compensation payable to the landowner, if the estate is acquired under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER III

Khatedari Rights of Tenants in Landowners' Estates

6. Khatedari Rights in estates.-(1) Every person who, at the commencement of this Act, is or so, entered in the revenue records as a tenant or a tenant of Khudkasht, but not as a sub-tenant, of any land forming part of an estate shall, unless he had become a Khatedari tenant thereof previously to such commencement by virtue of any law or otherwise, be deemed to be the Khatedar tenant of such land holding from the landowner of the estate:

Provided that Khatedari rights under this sub-section shall not accrue to any person to whom land is or has been let out temporarily in the Gang Canal, Bhakra, Chambal, Jawai or Rajasthan Canal Project Area; and no Khatedari rights shall accrue if the land belongs to any of the categories specified in section 16 of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act, 1955 (Rajasthan Act 3 of 1955).

(2) In respect of land under the personal cultivation of the landowner and in which there are no tenants, the landowner shall, as from the date of vesting, be the Khatedar tenant thereof:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall affect the provisions contained in Chapter III-B of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act, 1955 (Rajasthan Act 3 of 1955).

COMMENTARY

1.Sub-section (2) not invalid.-The Act having been included in IX Schedule of the Constitution at serial No, 163, validity of 8.6(2) cannot be challenged on the basis of infringement of fundamental rights. 1977 WLN 426, AIR 1981 SC 271&AIR 1995 Raj 21Disting, SushilaKumari v. State of Rajasthan, 1996 (1) WLC 96=1995 (2) WLN 377=1996 (2) RLW 78.

2.General.-[1] Notice issued under Rajasthan Ceiling Act contained third paragraph which was invalid and ultimately quashed. Part of notice is severable from rest of the contents. Tests laid down in AIR 1957 SC 628Foil. MaharajGajasingh v. State of Rajasthan, 1985 RLW 518.

[2] See also State of Rajasthan v. DhanchiMahasabha, 1997 RRD268=1997 RRC 215 (Rev).

[3] Section 6 deals with Khatedari rights of landowners themselves. and their tenants with the vesting of an estate u/s. 7-No separate order in respect of Sec, 6(2), envisaged by Act-Its operation is automatic with vesting-Hence-Chapter IV envisages acquisition of ownership rights in land forming part of an estate in personal cultivation of ex-ruler. State of Raj. v. KishanGopal&Ors., 1978 RRD 36.

[4] The land under Sardarsamand estate was under the personal cultivation of the petitioner at the commencement of this Act and in that land there were no tenants.

The petitioner, therefore, became the khatedar tenant thereof as from the date of vesting, i.e. September 1, 1964 and was not bound to deliver the possession of the land to the Collector, immediately after the publication of the Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Land Owners Estates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 (Ordinance No. 6 of 1975) in the official Gazette, and the Collector is not authorised to recover its possession from the petitioner under section 9-A of the Act, which was inserted into the principal Act by Amending Act No.15 of 1975- The notice marked Annexure 18 given to the petitioner by the Collector, Jodhpur on April 5, 1975 is therefore, liable to be quashed so far as it relates to agricultural land under his personal cultivation of which the petitioner has become a Khatedar tenant as from the date of vesting, i.e. September 1, 1964 on account of the land having been in his personal Cultivation at the date of commencement of the Act. *Maharaja Shri Gaj Singh of Jodhpur v. State of Raj.&Ors.1981 WLN (UC)73.

⁶[CHAPTER IV Acquisition of Estates

7. Acquisition of estates. –(1)As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the Government may for the purpose of carrying out agrarian reform in accordance with the provision of this Act, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint a date for the acquisition of land owners estates in the State and for their vesting in the State Government.

(2) The date appointed under this section in relation to the acquisition of landowner's estates in the State is in this Act referred to as the date of vesting of such estates.

COMMENTARY

1. Acquisition of estate not dependent on determination of rental income. – The determination of the rental income from the estate of land owner under sections 3 to 5 of the Act is only for the purpose of assessment of land revenue for the said estate. The acquisition of the estates under s.7 is not dependent upon prior assessment of the land revenue payable for the estate. It is open to the State Government to take steps for acquisition of the estates at any time after the coming into force of the Act. The action of the State in issuing notification cannot be challenged on the ground that prior to the issuance of the said notification, the land revenue payable for the estates has not been assessed. State of Rajasthan v. Prajapati Grah Nirman Samiti Ltd., 1987 WLN UC 103 (DB). But reversed in AIR 1989 SC 869.

2. Natural justice-Opportunity of hearing.-Grant made by Ex-ruler in December 1969 i.e. much after the prescribed date viz. 1.9.1964. Such a grant made by ex-ruler created no right in the petitioner and did confer status of tenant. No useful purpose could be served by giving an opportunity of hearing. Balsing v. State of Rajasthan, 1986 (2) WLN

7-A. Non-recognition of certain transfers and agreements. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law of judgment, decree or order of a court to the contrary-

(i) no transfer of an estate liable to acquisition under this Act or part thereof made by the landowner on or after the date of commencement of this Act and before the date of vesting, whether by way of sale, mortgage, gift, exchange, lease, assignment, surrender, bequest, creation of trust or otherwise, shall be recognised for any purpose of this Act and the estate or part so transferred shall be deemed to continue to vest in the landowner;

(ii) all transfers of an estate liable to acquisition under this Act or part thereof of the nature referred to in clause (i) made by the land owner on or after the date of vesting shall be null void; and

(iii) any agreement made by a landowner with any other person on or after the commencement of this Act for transfer of his estate liable to acquisition under this Act or part thereof or for relieving, whether in whole or in part, a tenant from liability for payment of rent of any land comprised in his estate shall be and is hereby declared to be null and void.

COMMENTARY

[1] Sale-deed executed by former ruler of Jodhpur in favour of the petitioner in the month of August, 1964 was of no value and the petitioner does not get any benefit from the alleged sale. Mohanlal v. State, 1985 WLN UC251.

[2] See also State of Rajasthan v. Dhanchi Mahasabha, 1997 RRD 268=1997 RRC 215 (Rev).

8. Consequences of acquisition.-(1) As from the date of vesting of any estate,—

 - (c) operate as a bar to the recovery of arrears of land revenue payable by the landowner for the period preceding the date of vesting or the recovery of rent in respect of land referred to in sub-section (2) of section 6.

COMMENTARY

1. Rights, title and interests already vested in Government, Collector cannot issue show cause notice.—As from the date of vesting the estate, rights, title and interest of the land owner and of every person claiming through him shall stand vested in the Government free from all encumbrances and that all rights, titles and interests created in or over the estate by the land owner or his predecessor-in interest shall as against the Government cease and determine. In view of the consequences of the acquisition laid down in section 8 of the Act, the Collector in exercise of his powers under section 9-A of the Act is not required to issue a show cause notice to the land owner calling upon him to appear and make any objection to the recovery of possession of the estate from him. Maharaja Shri Gajsingh of Jodhpur v. The State of Raj. & Ors. 1981 WLN (UQ) 73.

2. Scope.-Till the Act of 1963 came into force, the erstwhile rulers of princely states had been exempted from the payment of land revenue and, therefore, it is but natural that Settlement records relating to the period prior to 1965 would not show any land revenue to be payable by the erstwhile rulers. However after the coming into force of the aforesaid Act in 1964, land revenue would become payable by the erstwhile Rulers in respect of the lands held by them as tenants. The question of determination of land revenue is a separate one and is only procedural in nature, while the liability to pay land revenue is substantive, and is incurred by the operation of law. 1978 RRD 514.

9. Land-owner to deliver records.-(1) Every landowners whose estate is acquired under this Act shall, within two months of the date of publication of the Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Landowners' Estates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 (Ordinance No. 6 of 1975) in the Official Gazette, deliver to the Collector, or to any officer authorised in this behalf by the Collector, after obtaining a duly signed receipt from him for the same, all records relating to the administration and management of his estate so acquired or pertaining to the various items of receipts and disbursements mentioned in clauses (2) and (4), respectively of the Schedule to this Act, which in respect, of such estate, such landowner may have maintained or caused to be maintained or which may then be in his possession or power.

(2) If any such landowner fails without reasonable excuse to deliver his records in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), then, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him under any other provision of this Act or under the provisions of any other law for the time being in force, the Compensation Commissioner may, on the report of the Collector made in this behalf and after making such inquiry as he considers necessary,—

- (i) impose upon such landowner a penalty not exceeding one-fifteenth of the aggregate amount of compensation finally determined under section 15 as payable to him, and
- (ii) Direct the Collector to take recourse to legal process through a competent Magistrate for enforcing the surrender of such records.

(3) The Government or a landowner aggrieved by an order of the Compensation Commissioner under sub-section (2) may appeal to the Board within sixty days from the date of such order and the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 20 shall apply to the hearing of such appeal and the decision of the Board thereon.

(4) The amount of any penalty imposed upon a landowner under clause (i) of sub-section (2) may be deducted from the amount of compensation payable to him under this Act and shall otherwise be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

COMMENTARY

1. Scope. The Collector in issuing notices to the buyers and considering their answer was merely carrying out a fact-finding exercise as a revenue officer. Neither the Landowners' Estates Act nor the rules envisage such an enquiry and it is to be viewed as a precautionary exercise to ensure that hardship was not caused by taking forcible possession of land not liable to such action under the Act. Since the Collector as a revenue officer is in its subordination, the Board of Revenue certainly has the power under S. 9 of the Raj. Land Revenue Act to examine the decision taken by him. 1978 RRD 36.

2. Delivery of records by landowners.-See 1978 RRD 36.

9-A. Landowner to deliver possession.-The landowner and every other person claiming through him in his estate, shall deliver the possession of the estate acquired under section 7 to the Collector immediately after the publication of the Raj as than Land Reforms and Acquisition of Landowners' Estates (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 (Ordinance No. 6 of 1975) in the Official Gazette and if he fails to do so; the Collector shall recover its possession from the landowner and such other person in the prescribed manner.

COMMENTARY

[1] Board of Revenue has unlimited powers to set aside orders against law passed by subordinate courts. Order conferring khatedari rights held against provisions of law. State of Rajasthan v. Smt. Krishna Kumari, 1997 RRD 553 (Rev).

[2] It is established that Col. Mohan Singh, petitioner, was a tenant of the entire land under controversy forming part of the estate of Maharaja Gajsingh of Jodhpur, at the commencement of the Act. The Collector Jodhpur, therefore, had no jurisdiction or power to issue notices marked Annexure 8 and annexure p. 4 to Col. Mohan Singh and Narendra Singh respectively under section 9-A of the Act requiring them to deliver the possession of the lands under controversy.

The alternative remedy suggested by the Additional Government Advocate in these cases was not equally effective and satisfactory for the purpose of meeting the ends of justice. Col. Mohan Singh v. State 1981 WLN (UC) 62.

[3]No bar to the issue of writ.-There is no bar to the issue of the writs claimed by the petitioners, merely because they could file a suit for declaration of their Khatedari rights in the lands under dispute before invoking the extraordinary jurisdiction of this court by way of these writ petitions. The Collector Jodhpur had no jurisdiction to issue notices to the petitioners under section 9-A of the Act calling upon them to deliver possession of the lands in dispute to him. If the petitioners had resorted to this alternative remedy they would have been ousted from the lands in their possession before they could get interim relief because even under sub section(2) of section 10 CPC, the Court is not empowered to grant relief in the suit, whether interim or otherwise except after giving to the Government or to the Collector a reasonable opportunity of showing cause in respect of the relief prayed for in the suit. Consequently, I am of the view that the alternative remedy suggested by the Additional Government Advocate was inadequate and this court is not deprived of its discretion to issue the writs in the particular circumstances of these cases. Col. Mohan Singh v. State of Raj., 1981 WLN (UC)62.

10. Private lands, buildings, wells, house-sites and enclosures.-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 8—

- (a) (i) all open enclosures in the possession of the landowner used for agricultural or domestic purposes,
- (ii) all private buildings, places of worship, and wells situated in, and trees standing on, lands, included in such enclosures or house-sites, as are specified in clause (i) above, or land appertaining to such buildings or places of worship,
- (iii) all groves, wherever situate, belonging to or held by the landowner or any other person,
- (b) all private wells and buildings belonging to or held by the landowner or any other person. and
- (c) all tanks in the persona] occupation of the landowner and used solely for irrigating the land referred to in sub-section 1982 RRD 509. landowner or other person subject in the case of tanks, to the terms and conditions, if any, mentioned in the Covenant,

(2) If any question arises whether any property is of the nature referred to in sub-section (1), it shall be referred to the Compensation Commissioner, who may, after holding the prescribed enquiry, make such order thereon as he deems fit.

COMMENTARY

1. 'Landowner'-Whois. —[1] Landowner means the Ex-Ruler of a covenanting State of Rajasthan holding as an estate under and in accordance with the settlement of his personal and private properties made in pursuance of the covenant and finally approved by the Central Government of India, Such covenant was entered into and admitted by the respondents and not by the appellant. Appeal was rightly rejected. Parmeshwar Raj Shri Eklingji v. Shri Bhagwat Singh, 1982 RRD 509.

[2] Under section 10 of this Act, respective claims in respect of land of Landowners (Ex-rulers) and the state of Raj as than are to be taken into consideration. Idol of Lord

Ekling thus cannot be considered Land owner under this Act. Parmeshwvar Maharaja Eklingji v. Shri BhagwatSinghji, 1982 RRD 509.

[3] The Collector has no jurisdiction to enquire into the personal property of an estate owner-Ex-ruler. The Collector must have referred the matter to the compensation Commissioner who alone has the jurisdiction of enquiry under the Act. Section 10(2) authorises the Compensation Commissioner and not the Collector. Raj Kumar v. AmbikaPratapSingh v. State of Raj. 1983 RRD 743.

2. Scope of Enquiry under.-Enquiry envisaged by Section 10(2) is in respect of properties claimed as private properties- Compensation Commissioner is empowered to examine list of private properties exempt from acquisition as. State of Raj. v. KishanGopal&Ors. v. RamTaparia&Ors., 1978 RRD 36.

3. Jurisdiction of Compensation Commissioner.-The question as to whether a particular property is part and parcel of a fort, palace or building specified in the inventory of the private properties of a former ruler and is to be excluded wholly or partially from acquisition under the Act. is a matter which is required to be determined by the Compensation Commissioner under sub-section (2). The question as to whether the lands in Khasra No, 421 and 426 form part and parcel of Umaid Bhawan Palace and are to be excluded wholly or partially from acquisition under the Act and are to be retained by the landowner, is a question which was required to be determined by the Compensation Commissioner and the Collector, Jodhpur was in error in refusing to refer the same to the Compensation Commissioner on the ground that in his view no such dispute existed in relation to the nature of the said lands. State of Rajasthan v. PrajapatiGarh Nirman Samiti Ltd, 1987 WLN UC 103 (DB). But reversed in AIR 8C 869.

11. Refund of sums to which landowner is not entitled.-

(1) On and from the date of vesting, no landowner shall recover or receive from any tenant or resident of the estate, or from any contractor or other person any rent, cess or other dues which he is not entitled to recover or receive, under the provisions of this Act.

(1-A) If any landowner has, before the publication of the Rajasthan Land Reforms and Acquisition of Landowners' Estates (Amendment) Act, 1975 in the Official Gazette, recovered or received any amount on account of rent, cess or other dues in contravention of sub-section (1), he shall refund the same to the Collector within two months from the date of publication of the said Act and submit a proper account of such amounts recovered or received by him.

(2) If the landowner fails to refund such amount to the Collector within the time specified in sub-section (1-A) or if the Collector finds that the landowner has refunded lesser amount than what has been recovered or received by him, the Collector shall, after giving the landowner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, determine the amount of such rent, cess or other dues and shall order him to refund the same with interest calculated from the expiry of the time specified in the said sub-section at such rates as may be prescribed and within the time specified in such order, and if the landowner fails to refund the amount as so determined and ordered to him, the Collector may impose on him a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees:

Provided that before imposing any penalty on the landowner under this sub-section, the Collector shall give the landowner an opportunity to show-cause against the imposition of such penalty.

(3) All sums recoverable from a landowner under sub-section (2) may be deducted from the amount of compensation payable to him under this Act and shall otherwise be recoverable as in arrear of land revenue

11-A. Mode of utilisation of acquired estates.-(1) The Government shall, after reserving such extent of the land comprised in the estates acquired by or vesting in it under section 7, as may be necessary for purposes directed towards the promotion of agriculture or the welfare of the agricultural population to be settled on such lands, allot the remaining lands to landless persons, agriculturists and agricultural labourers in such manner, on such terms and subject to such conditions and restrictions, as may be prescribed.

(2) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, delegated their powers of allotment under sub-section (1) to the Collector or to any other officer or authority subordinate to it subject to such restrictions and control as may be specified in the notification],

(4) The decision of the Board in an appeal under this Section shall be final.

COMMENTARY

1. Appeal-[I] Section 20 of this Act provides a limited right of appeal to the Board of Revenue. An order under section 144 CPC is not specified in section 20 of this Act thus such order (under section 144 CPC) of the Collector is not appealable under this Act, Matters in respect of which appeals can be filed is enumerated under Sections 3(2), 10(2) and 15(2) of this Act and beyond that there is no right to appeal against. State of Raj. v. Dr. Kami Singh of Bikaner, 1983 RRD 414.

[2] Any person aggrieved may file appeal or revision as contemplated under this Section. The appellant being an 'Ex ruler Land Owner*' of the personal property is entitled under this Section to appeal. The objection of the State that the appellant was not the party in proceedings before the trial court is held not tenable. Raj Kumar Ambika Pratap Singh v. State of Raj., 1983 RRD 743.

[3] An appeal by transferee of land from Land owner is not maintainable as he is not an aggrieved person under this Act. Gir Raj Singh v. State of Raj., 1977 RRD 210.

2. Fact finding exercise.-Notices, issued by Collector to purchasers-Collector held that sales, not hit by Sec. 7-A(ii) and vacated notices-Collector was merely carrying out a fact-finding exercise as a revenue officer-Fact-Finding enquiry, not carried out properly by Collector-Order of Collector, set aside. State of Raj. v. Kishan Gopal & Ors. v. Ram Taparia & Others, 1978 RRD 36.

21. Review.-(1) The Board, or the Compensation Commissioner may, either on an application made within three months of the date of order by an interested party, or suo motu, review an order passed by the Board or by such Commissioner himself or by his predecessor-in-office and pass such order in relation thereto as it or he thinks fit.

22. Correction of clerical errors.-Clerical or arithmetical mistakes in any order passed by any officer or authority under this Act, or errors arising therein from any accidental slip, or omission, may, at any time be corrected by such officer or authority, either of his own motion or on an application received in this behalf from any interested person:

2. Gross income.-The gross income of a landowner for the basic year shall be the total income from his estate under the following heads:—
